

Denise Bibro Fine Art, 529 W 20th St, Chelsea, NYC is pleased to announce its first solo exhibition of the Fall Season: Dusty Boynton: *Unhinged, paintings and monotypes.

Boynton's new body of work continues her journey of conscious and subconscious response to memory and circumstance. With an elegant, organic sense of line and color, often her work appears wanton and child-like, and at other times quirky, dark, and deliberate. As always, the work is inquisitively engaging, sophisticated and charged with emotional content.

Besides more than a decade of numerous solo exhibitions, the gallery has exhibited her work at numerous Art Fairs including ArtMiami, ArtContext, Miami, Fl, ArtOnPaper, NY. Ms. Boynton has been reviewed in the New York Times, ArtNews, ArtAmerica, ArtForum, Modern Painters, Wall Street Journal to name a few. In the past year, she's had a solo exhibition at the Delaware Contemporary Art Museum, Willington, DE and the Helen Day Art Center in Stowe, VT. The gallery is collaborating with the Burlington Center of Art to have a solo exhibition of Boynton's work this coming year. Boynton's work is in numerous private and public collections, and has been featured in the movie "Remember Me" with Robert Patterson.

There will be an opening for the Artist on Thursday, October 12th, 2017, 6-8pm. For more information and/images please contact the gallery, (212) 647-7030 or at info@denisebibrofineart.com.
